

Temporary Regulations for visiting Gross-Rosen Museum
Nazi German concentration and death camp 1940-1945 during an epidemic – phase II and III (by the regulations of Ministry of Culture and National Heritage)

1. Gross-Rosen Museum during the epidemic is open between 9:00 – 16:00 (until further notice).
2. Arrival of tourist groups over 5 people to the Museum are suspended.
3. Museum suspends conducting educational workshops for youth groups.
4. Museum suspends the possibility of free guided tour for individual visitors at 13:00.
5. Only individual visitors are allowed on the site of Gross-Rosen Museum.
6. Individual visitors (up to 5 people) can book a guided tour after prior reservation by phone 74 855 90 07 or by e-mail: rogoznica@gross-rosen.eu. During a guided tour they are obliged to wear a mask.
7. Individual visitors can also booked a screening of a short (30 min.) film about Gross-Rosen concentration camp history. At the same time up to 10 people can stay in the projection room. The possibility of using the projection and the order of entering the projection room is determined by the Museum employees on duty. People in the screening room have to wear a mask.
8. Due to exclusion of few Museum facilities from touring, guided tours will took no more than 1 hour.
9. After entering the Museum parking lot visitors are obliged to visit a sanitary point, that is located near Tourist Service Office to disinfect their hands. Wearing a mask is recommended.
10. Due to sanitary and safety restrictions only few Museum facilities are open for visitors (Exhibition about KL Gross-Rosen history in the main building, model of Gross-Rosen concentration camp, exhibitions in the reconstructed barrack number 7: “Heroes in stripes...”, “Hubalczycy...” and other).
11. Due to sanitary and safety restrictions the waiting room is closed.

Tourist Service Office (information, cash window – on the parking lot near the barrier):

12. After entering the Museum parking lot visitors are obliged to visit a sanitary point, that is located near Tourist Service Office to disinfect their hands and are obliged to wear masks disposable gloves on the site.

13. Only one person can stay at the cash window (in building next to the car park).
14. The visitors standing in the line to the cash window and during their touring on the site of the Museum are obliged to keep a distance of 1,5 meters between them.
15. We encourage you to pay by card.

Main Exhibition Building:

The number of visitors staying in the hall, in the main exhibition and in the projection room are regularly regulated by Museum employees on duty.

Only one person at time can use the toilet in the main hall.

Director of Gross-Rosen Museum